Solomon Islands

Solomon Islands. Untouched by influences of the modern world the Solomon Islands are considered the eco-tourism destination of the South Pacific. Located on the western fringe of the Pacific, north east of Australia, the Solomons comprise of 992 islands, extending some 1667 kilometres south-east from Papua New Guinea. Rich in culture, this pristine paradise is one of the Pacific's best kept secrets and offers the visitor a unique and unforgettable holiday experience.

The environment: The islands range in size from tiny, low-lying coral atolls to larger landmasses and offer a diversity of geography from tropical jungles and lush rainforests to waterfalls and volcanoes. Most islands are surrounded by coral reefs with tranquil blue lagoons and sun-soaked white sand beaches, lined with coconut palms.

The people: Only 147, of the 992 islands, are actually inhabited. The estimated population of 560,000 are predominately Melanesian, while some outer islands are home to Polynesians and Micronesians. The local people appear shy but are very friendly. Most live a subsistent village lifestyle retaining many traditional and ancient customs.

History: During WWII, the Solomon Islands became a key turning point in the struggle by the allied forces, to repel the Japanese advancement in the South Pacific. In November 1942, one of the fiercest encounters in naval history occurred here, with both sides suffering heavy losses. The Battle of Guadalcanal left the region littered with sunken ships and downed aircraft and the area became known as Iron Bottom Sound. Over time the wrecks have transformed into artificial reefs attracting a variety of corals and a myriad of marine life.

Things to Do: Solomon Islands are renowned for having some of the best diving in the world. Crystal clear water with temperatures ranging between 27-30° C, provide a plethora of water based activities. Snorkelling, kayaking, canoeing, sailing, surfing and big game fishing can all be enjoyed. Land based activities include a range of unique cultural, ecological and historical tours. Visit custom villages, cultural shrines, historical WWII sites, view arts and crafts, take rainforest treks to waterfalls, do some bird spotting or even visit a volcano.

Guadalcanal - Honiara

Honiara, located on the island of Guadalcanal, is the capital of the Solomon Islands and the international gateway to your holiday adventure. The town overlooks the large lagoon known as "Iron Bottom Sound". This expansive body of water is the resting place of the many ships and aircraft that plummeted to its depths, during the WWII Battle of Guadalcanal. Honiara offers a good selection of hotels, restaurants, clubs, banks, general stores and market place and is the springboard for the many tourist activities, throughout the region.

Things to do: Honiara offers a range of water and land based activities, guided historical and cultural tours.

Scuba Diving: Iron Bottom Sound is the resting place of a variety of wrecks including troop carriers, transport ships, submarines and planes

NB: All wrecks are National Heritage listed and the removal of any item is strictly prohibited.

Snorkelling: A snorkelling trip will provide the opportunity to view the variety of marine life and hard and soft corals.

Fishing: The Solomon Islands are virtually unspoiled by commercial fishing. The big fish action is amazing. You can troll for Spanish Mackerel, Wahoo and Dog-tooth Tuna. Serious fishermen can pursue Pacific Sailfish, Yellow-fin Tuna and blue, black and striped Marlin.

Golf: Honiara Golf Club has an 11-hole course. The club sits on the former site of the US Army Air Corps airfield.

Hiking: If you enjoy jungle treks, then a guided trip to the Mataniko Falls and caves is highly recommended. The tour is a leisurely 4-5 hour round trip. It offers different routes, allowing the return trip to be either on foot or to swim or float back down the river on a rubber tube.

World War II tours: Guadalcanal was a major turning point in the Pacific Campaign of WWII. Many relics from the battles can be found on land as well as underwater. This tour takes the visitor to view relics, museums, and monuments of great significance to both the Japanese and US Allied Forces. Areas of interest include Bloody Ridge, US Memorial, Vilu Outdoor War Museum, Bonegi Wreck, Vouza Monument, Henderson Air Field and Memorial Garden.

Cultural village tours: Solomon Islanders are proud to introduce visitors to their unique way of life. A village visit is a great way to gain insight into their everyday village life. Experience the unhurried way of life, learn about their customs and cultural history, enjoy traditional singing and dancing and view cooking, weaving and handcrafts.

Island day trips: Enjoy a day trip to the Florida Islands. Explore the islands, laze on a beach, swim in the calm, crystal clear water, play beach volleyball, paddle a canoe or just kick back in a hammock with a book and cool drink.

Guadalcanal - Tavanipupu Island Resort

Tavanipupu is a privately owned island resort located in Marau Sound. Surrounded by a turquoise lagoon and protected marine park this tropical island paradise is only a 25 minute flight from Honiara. During the 19th century the island was a working coconut plantation owned by Danish traders. Transformed in the 1970s by English interior decorator Dennis Bellote, who still lives on the island, the manicured lawns studded with lines of coconut palms and some trader's old gravestones, are the only evidence of Tavanipupu's past.

Things to do:

Snorkeling: The protected marine park has some of the best snorkeling in the Solomon Islands.

Fishing: There is a selection of fishing boats available. Local skippers know where the best fishing spots are located.

Sailing: Charter a catamaran and sail around the island.

Kosa : Visit Kosa, a magical nearby island for the day or you can hire the whole island for the night.

Village tours: Visit some of the local villages on surrounding islands. The locals make guests feel welcome with their singing and dancing. A truly cultural experience!

Tavanipupu

Location: Exclusive 5-star, resort located in Marau Sound, a 25 minute flight from Honiara.

Accommodation is in one of six luxury bungalows, made from local timbers with traditional thatched roofs.

Room amenities: The bungalows are tastefully decorated in customary wood carvings and contain a king-size bamboo bed with luxury cotton sheets and a canopy net. Each bungalow has a private bathroom, is fully powered and faces its own private beach.

Resort facilities: Restaurant and bar and personalized service.

Marovo Lagoon - Uepi Island Resort

©Peter Lange

Uepi Island Resort sits on two and a half kilometres of barrier reef island, on the edge of the magnificent Marovo Lagoon, on the south-eastern side of New Georgia Island in Western Province. Comprising some 100 hectares of raised coral reef, covered with lowland rainforest, this pristine environment is in an almost undisturbed state. The marine eco-system is extraordinarily diverse and the terrestrial eco-system is quite unique. A 60 minute flight from Honiara brings you to the small airstrip at Seghe. Visitors are met at the airstrip and transported the 12 kilometres across the beautiful Marovo Lagoon in an open 22 foot speed boat, making the journey to this stunning, remote area an adventure in itself. Hospitality and privacy are just part of this tropical island paradise getaway.

Munda and Lola Island - Western Province

Munda is located near the junction of the Roviana and Vona Vona Lagoons, on the north-eastern corner of New Georgia Island. A one hour flight from Honiara, Munda is a destination for adventure seekers who like to explore "off the beaten track" and experience the culture and diversity of the region. Munda is a vibrant community made up of a number of small villages. Roviana Island has a colourful history. It was once the centre for head-hunting, animist religion and tribal wars. Eerie trophies from this by-gone era are enshrined on near-by Skull Island. During WWII the Japanese built an airstrip to serve as a staging point to Guadalcanal. The main village of Lambete has a store, bank, post office and medical services.

Lola Island is situated in Vono Vono Lagoon, a 20-30 minute boat ride from Munda. Lola Island is a lost paradise hideaway surrounded by a stunning blue lagoon and white sandy beaches with swaying palm trees. Covered with lush vegetation the island is for the traveller or fisherman who likes to experience a "Robinson Crusoe" adventure getaway. The surrounding region offers an array of full or half day adventures to local villages and uninhabited islands.

Things to do:

Snorkelling: Clear water and a variety of marine life to explore.

Diving: The diving is still largely unexplored with new sites being discovered daily. Virgin reefs and wall dives are specialties.

Fishing: (Lola Island) The resort offers a unique diversity of fishing from salt-water fly, to deep sea.

Surfing: (Lola Island) There are 3 surf breaks 5-20 minutes from Lola Island. The best season is November to April.

World War II: During WWII Munda was an important military airfield base and relics are scattered throughout the region.

Skull Island Tour: Skull Island is one of the most sacred places in the region. There are many shrines displaying human skulls, from the days when headhunting was considered part of the custom.

Agnes Lodge - Munda

Location: Overlooking Roviana Lagoon, Agnes Lodge was originally a guest house for government officials.

Room Amenities: Agnes Lodge offers a range of accommodation from, suites and cottages to budget rooms and backpacker dormitories. The guest rooms have twin or double beds and all rooms have their own facilities. All rooms have ceiling fans, tea / coffee making facilities, a small fridge and mosquito netting.

Facilities: A traditional leaf house building situated on the water's edge, houses the restaurant and lounge bar. There is also a dive shop.

Zipolo Habu - Lola Island

Location: A deserted island getaway set on a blue lagoon with swaying palm trees and white sand beaches.

Room Amenities: Individual, rustic bungalows made from traditional sago palm leaves. Some bungalows offer a basic kitchen with gas stove, fridge and electric fans. Shower and bathroom facilities are housed in a separate building, nearby. There is a new deluxe bungalow on the beach with private facilities.

Facilities: Waterfront Restaurant and bar.

Gizo - Western Province

Gizo is the capital of Western Province and one of the most visited regions in the Solomon Islands. Gizo is a tropical treasure trove of sun-drenched blue lagoons, coral cays, lush forests and sparkling, crystal clear water. The main island is surrounded by dozens of smaller tropical islands, ringed by coral reefs. Apart from its beauty, Gizo is rich in culture and has an interesting history. Embedded in Gizo's history is the heavy fighting that occurred in the region during WWII. Stories about the rescue of John F Kennedy and the PT 109 crew, the aerial battles that occurred over Vella Lavella and the Tokyo Express, still abound today. Flights to Gizo depart Honiara daily and take approximately 90 minutes. Gizo offers a good selection of accommodation and a number of restaurants, bars and banks.

Fatboys Resort

Location: Situated on Mbabanga Island, a 10-minute boat ride from Gizo. The 4 bungalows and 1 self-contained unit, constructed from traditional tropical hardwood, are situated right on the waters edge with views over Kennedy Island and Mount Kolombangara.

Room amenities: Each bungalow features quality bedding, imported furniture, 240 volt power, private bathroom and tea / coffee making facilities.

Facilities: Room service, gift shop, tour desk, fax and mobile phone service. The restaurant and bar is perched over-water at the end of the 100 metre pier.

Things to do:

Diving: The reef and wreck diving around Gizo is considered some of the best in the world.

Snorkelling & Beaches: There are a number of great beaches and picnic spots.

Surfing: All surf breaks in Western Province break on coral and most require a boat to get to them. The best time to surf is November through to April.

Fishing: Reef and deep-sea fishing are available with dedicated guides.

Island Tours: Full or half day Island trips and cultural trips are available. Bush walk, climb the volcanic crater, kayak, snorkel, beach comb, visit cultural shrines and villages.

World War II tours: Visit a Japanese gun fort, see an American tank and partially submerged wrecks. Visit Kennedy Island where US President JF Kennedy was shipwrecked during WW II.

Travel Tips

Passport: Visitors must hold a current passport with minimum 6 months validity plus a return or onward travel ticket.

Visas: Commonwealth, US or most EC visitors do not require a visa. Check with your consultant for updated information.

Climate: Tropical with average daytime temperatures between 25°C – 29°C and evenings 19°C. April to November is the most popular time to visit as the climate is very pleasant with little rain.

Health: Like many tropical regions malaria is endemic in the Solomon Islands. Anti-malarial medication is highly recommended. Consult your doctor several weeks prior to departure. Bottled or boiled water is recommended.

Electricity: 240V AC is available in Honiara and major resort areas. Generator powers most outer areas.

Language: Melanesian and Pidgin English are predominant although English is used and understood throughout most of the islands.

Culture: Culture varies from province to province. Ask about appropriate behaviour and always seek permission before taking photos of people or places.

Time: 11 hours ahead of Greenwich Mean Time.

Communications: 24 hour telephone and fax. Limited Internet services are available in provincial centres, major hotels and resorts.

Business: Hours of business are from 8am - 12 noon and 1pm - 4pm.

Currency: Solomon Island Dollar. Banks are located in Honiara, Gizo and an ATM at Munda Post Office. Banking hours are 8.30am-3.00pm Monday to Friday. Credit card facilities are available on the main land. Currency exchange is recommended prior to travelling to outer islands.

Packing Hints: Casual, lightweight clothing (not too brief in public places). Cover up at dusk and dawn to prevent mosquito bites. Don't forget comfortable shoes, hat, sunglasses, insect repellent, sunscreen and a torch.

N.B. Visitors should be mindful that as you move away from the main towns and centres the services and facilities become increasingly limited. A family or village privately owns many beaches and land areas in the Solomon Islands. Always enquire and seek permission before entering such areas. You may be asked to pay a small fee.
